

TOP SECRET
Security Information
Deputies' Meeting

Wednesday, 3 December 1952

PRESENT: Messrs. Dulles, Wisner, Wolf, Amory, [REDACTED]

25X1

Mr. Dulles:

25X1 a. Noted the item in today's Log regarding an approach by a group of Americans in Paris purporting to represent "industrial circles" and "the Republican hierarchy" to Polish members of the PPS and WIN and, after some discussion, undertook to advise Mr. John Foster Dulles of this incident. Mr. Wisner asked if Mr. John Foster Dulles was contacted in regard to an appointment with a [REDACTED] representative we be advised.

25X1 b. Noted that [REDACTED], with the approval of the DCI, had gone abroad on a short trip and undertook to discuss the nature of this visit with Mr. Amory at a future date.

25X1 c. Asked that a meeting on our maritime program be arranged for 11 a.m. Tuesday, 9 December. [REDACTED] undertook to do this.

25X1 d. Raised the question of CIA being represented at the [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
these conferences, undertook to raise this matter with the Director at tomorrow's Deputies' Meeting.

e. Noted a cable from the Senior Representative, [REDACTED] and asked DD/P to prepare an appropriate reply.

25X1

(CONTINUED)

TOP SECRET

Security Information

25X1

Mr. Dulles (Cont'd.)

[Redacted]

Mr. Wisner:

a. Noted, in response to a query from Mr. Dulles, that we were pressing forward in our preparations for the committee to be appointed to investigate psychological warfare activities. In this connection, Mr. Dulles asked

[Redacted]

25X1

[Redacted]

25X6

d. Raised the question of a briefing by CIA for Admiral Espe, the newly appointed Director of Naval Intelligence. Mr. [Redacted] undertook to raise this with the Director.

25X1

Mr. Amory referred to a cable (IN 17673) regarding a possible coup in [Redacted] and stated this appeared to be "much ado about nothing".

25X1

JSE

TOP SECRET

Security Information